The service activities of our students vary greatly each year as they contribute to both the university and community. Some examples of their contributions are:

- Organizing students to lobby on behalf of environmental concerns
- Serving on search, advisory, scholarship, and ad-hoc University committees
- Educating and mentoring students
- Volunteering as crisis counselors

ACTIVITIES HONORARY SOCIETY

The Activities Honorary Society (AHS) was chartered in 1950 at the University of Illinois Undergraduate Division of the University of Illinois when it was housed at Navy Pier. The intent of its founders was to recognize undergraduate students who demonstrate broad and deep involvement in co-curricular activities. This 76-year-old honorary society is one of the oldest traditions at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC), and its purpose remains the same today.

Students selected for induction into AHS have served in at least three diverse organizations and/or in a diverse set of activities within them. Nominees must be in good academic standing (minimum of 2.5/4.0 grade-point average) with at least 72 academic credit hours completed by the end of the spring term in which they are nominated. These individuals serve as examples to their fellow students who aspire to similar levels of involvement for the betterment of the campus.

Nominations are made by faculty members, advisors, mentors, staff, and students, and are subjected to a rigorous selection process in which the student's contributions to the University are evaluated in terms of demonstrated leadership qualities, level of involvement, administrative skill, and overall contributions to the student experience at UIC. The selection is made by a committee of alumni, some of whom have previously been inducted into AHS, thus making the honor unique among other UIC student awards. No more than 17 inductees are selected each year.

The following members of the AHS Class of 2026 were formally inducted earlier today.
